

LTJSS signs MoU with Quick Heal Foundation

■ Staff Reporter

LOKMANYA Tilak Jankalyan Shikshan Sanstha (LTJSS), has entered into a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with the Quick Heal Foundation, to form "Cyber Awareness Literacy Cell (CALC)" in college to create cyber awareness among the college students. The idea is to make the youth alert by teaching them net-queries and prevent them falling prey to cyber criminals or getting indulged in cyber-crimes or similar activities. For the signing of the MoU, Quick Heal Foundation was represented by Ajay Shirke, Manager CSR and Sugandha Dani, Executive CSR while LTJSS was represented by Abhijeet Deshmukh, Director.

Through this MoU, the two think tanks agreed to exchange their experts and researchers,

Dr Vivek Nasoni, Dr Ravi Kshirsagar, Ajay Shirke, Abhijeet Deshmukh and others during the signing of MoU.

conduct joint awareness programmes and exchange their publications. The purpose of cooperation between Quick Heal Foundation and LTJSS is to improve academic and scholarly interactions amongst them, to promote and intensify the friendship and the mutual understanding between each other. The signing ceremony was done in Priyadarshini College of Engineering and in the presence of the various principals of the group- Dr M P Singh, PCE; Dr V M Nasoni, FIET; Dr R V Kshirsagar, PGCE; Dr Nitin Choudhari, PGCE and Dr A M Shende, PLCE. The programme was initiated and co-ordinated by Jogi John, PCE and Richa Singh, Prof Rahul M Pathe.