

Entries invited for second edition of Cy-Fi Karandak

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
PUNE, OCTOBER 19

A ONE-ACT-PLAY competition launched in 2017, Cy-Fi Karandak, which is a festival that hopes to raise awareness on cyber security has invited entries for the 2018 edition.

Organised by the Theatre Academy, Quick Heal Foundation and Maharashtra Cyber Police, the last edition of the festival saw participation from over 100 teams across the state. Renowned theatre professional Prasad Purandare, Head of Theatre Academy, will be responsible for selecting teams from regional centres across the state. The teams are expected to display contemporary theatrical acts which are reflections of life in the digital world.

Entries from colleges, stand-alone groups and theatre associations will be accepted till November 15 and the participating teams need to be a registered group within the theatre circle.

To register, teams can mail to theatreacademypune@gmail.com. The finalists selected for Cy-Fi Karandak 2018 will perform at the grand finale on December 16 with the opportunity to showcase their talent amidst a jury panel comprising eminent theatre, film, and TV personalities.
