

Quick Heal donates Arogya Yan mobile clinic to SRM Hospital

Chennai, Sept 24:

Delivering on its mission of 'Securing Futures' through selfless philanthropy, Quick Heal Foundation, the CSR arm of Quick Heal Technologies Limited, has made a generous donation in the form of Arogya Yan to SRM Hospital, Kattankulathur, Chennai. Arogya Yan is a state-of-the-art Mobile Clinic designed to transport patients from far-flung zones while also delivering healthcare services like diagnosis, treatments, and routine check-ups.

The foundation has collaborated with PuthiyaThalaimurai Foundation, one of the largest NGOs in India organizes medical camps in rural areas like eye testing, dental care, cardiac, skin disorder, ortho care, cancer prevention & awareness for those who are needy & have no access to quality medical care.

The donation ceremony was held in the presence of esteemed guests and dignitaries AnupamaKatkar, Chairperson, Quick Heal Foundation and, Dr Kailash Katkar, MD & CEO, Quick Heal Technologies Limited, Dr. M. Logaraj from Hospital and Mr D. V. Venkatagiri from PT Foundation. With this initiative, Arogya Yan aims to serve more than 60,000 people every year in nearby villages such as Chettipunniyam, Villiambakkam, Sasthirapakkam, Mettutheru and Veerapuram. Quick Heal Foundation, Chairperson, AnupamaKatkar, said "Tailored to work as a mobile medical clinic and as a medical transport, we are sure Arogya Yan will help the needy people from surrounding villages and communities to avail the basic medical facilities with ease and comfort."