

Street play organised at Kamla Nehru College

■ Our Correspondent

KORBA, Feb 12

A STREET play was organised at Kamla Nehru College to create awareness about cyber crime. The play was performed by Quick Heal Foundation and Seva Bharti. The play also highlighted the measures to guard one against cyber frauds.

The play was staged on Thursday, under the joint auspices of Quick Heal Foundation, Pune and Seva Bharti Sansthan. Regional Joint Secretary of Seva Bharti Abhishek Sharma and District Joint Secretary Umesh Soni addressed the students. The programme was aided by Cyber Police.

The team described detailed methods of guarding one's details and passwords from cyber fraud and cyber crime. Professors and Assistant Professors were also educated on the subject. Street play was presented in an interesting manner.

Street play at Kamla Nehru College.

Following the street play, officers of cyber cell addressed the students and created awareness about cyber crime. The street play team involved Yogesh Shetty, Gaurav Nimkar, Trushant Pate, Krishna Nauvale, Amol Aglawe, and Vishal Chavan.

The program was organised under the guidance of College Principal Dr Prashant Bopapurkar, Senior Professor Ajay Mishra, who led students of NCC and NSS in organising the programme.

Dr Bopapurkar said that latest technical and internet medium are being used in our everyday life and proper use of this technology will turn it into a boon while misusing the same will turn it into bane.